Noot Sear, Supermodel, was photographed wearing the Lela Kasia dress during August 2007 while in Vancouver, British Columbia for a charity event. Sear is a very high profile model and has appeared on the covers of publications such as Vogue and Elle as well as in campaigns for major cosmetic companies such as Chanel and Pantene. We couldn't have been happier then opening up 24 Magazine and seeing this great picture of Sear choosing Lela Designs!
