SPORTSWEAR

Take it to the courts or the course or the beach with these summer-ready sport pieces by lululemon, New Balance and Lela Designs. When shopping for sportswear make sure to always try things on and test out the pieces in store. Move around in sport-like movements to see if the garment can support you. Also, look out for flat seams to prevent chaffing when you sweat and ask for fabrics that dry quickly, like Nike's Dri Fit or for garments that have good ventilation design.

ACCESSORIZE

You can't always use your cell phone to check the time, especially if you're running. This simple sport watch by Nike is perfect for all sport lovers. $100 Nike, 1124 Robson St.

SHOES

You've got to find the right shoe for the right occasion and in this case, it's for volleyball, golf and tennis (I just had to match the outfits with shoes). With volleyball shoes you want to make sure that you have enough cushion for the balls of your feet to absorb the impact of jumping. Golfing shoes need to be comfortable enough to withstand a lot of walking and tennis shoes should have needed ball and ankle support for all the running involved.

ASK KIM

Spring cleaning just passed and I'm looking to revamp my closet system. Do you have any tips or suggestions?

Steer clear of plastic hangers they tend to bend out of shape. Wooden hangers are ideal in particular, cedar. They may cost a bit more but are well worth it for keeping your closet clear of pesky moths. If cedar hangers aren't in your budget buy a small slat of cedar and stick it in your closet it'll have the same effect.

E-mail your style questions to kim.elbo@metronews.ca.

French 'Shrek' dominates Myers

FILM Actor Mike Myers was surprised to have been overshadowed by the French voice of Shrek, actor Alain Chabat, when they both appeared at the Cannes Film Festival last week for the screening of Shrek The Third, imdb.com reports.

Myers has met all 26 foreign "Shreks" who re-voice his role in their countries.

"When Alain Chabat came out people were jumping up in the air, French people exploding ... I get out and it's like cricket, cricket," Myers said. METRO VANCOUVER NEWS SERVICES

Lawyer sues Birkhead over payment

Larry Birkhead's former lawyer filed a lawsuit against him Tuesday, claiming he did not pay his legal bills during a paternity dispute involving Anna Nicole Smith's baby.

Debra Opri wants to force binding arbitration under the terms of a contract in which she agreed to represent Birkhead in September, according to the lawsuit filed in Superior Court.

Opri said her work on Birkhead's behalf was "extensive, entailed hundreds of hours of work" and required her to travel to multiple states and outside the country. The lawsuit did not specify a dollar amount.

Birkhead sued Smith in October seeking a paternity test of her daughter, Danielynn Hope, to determine who was the baby's father.

Howard Stern, Smith's lawyer and longtime companion, had also claimed to be the father and was listed on the baby's birth certificate.

A Los Angeles judge later ruled in Birkhead's favour in December but the DNA testing was not performed until months later. Smith died in Florida on Feb. 8 of an accidental overdose of prescription drugs.

After a highly publicized court dispute, paternity tests released last month showed Birkhead was the baby's father.

Opri was Birkhead's lawyer during most of the dispute but later withdrew from the case without explaining why. ASSOCIATED PRESS

Shakira breaks concert record

MUSIC Pop star Shakira has broken the record for the largest audience at a public concert in Mexico City, after more than 200,000 fans flocked to watch her, imdb.com reports.

The singer achieved her world record after performing to the huge audience in Zocalo Square on Sunday.

"I have fed off you, and I leave with my heart full," she told the crowd.

The previous record was held by band Café Tacuba, who drew 170,000 people in 2005. METRO VANCOUVER NEWS SERVICES
