On the B.C. Fashion Week runway, Lela cleverly reinvented golfwear by channelling punk rock and naughty prep-school girls. Rebecca Blissett photo.

Lela Later the same night on the same runway, Lela trotted out a collection of golf wear that bends, twists, and tweaks links-dressing etiquette enough to 'release the Tiger in the Woods. Black and purple summon the punk-rock golfer, while the minis and argyle channel a bit of the not-so-nice prep-school student. Pedal pushers, pleated minis, polos, and sweater vests are all there, but now they've got thin-strap details and silhouettes that push the standard golf fare into sexy pinup...
